

NCHU Scholarship application Q&A

Q: I forgot to apply for the NCHU scholarship before the deadline, can you please give me another chance?

A: No, all the students should finish their application before due (March 6, 2026), no overdue application will be accepted.

Q: Can I apply by paper documents?

A: No, all the students should apply for the scholarship online, no paper application will be accepted.

Q: I am unable to login to the application portal.

A: The account ID and the password is the same as the NCHU Single sign on system, please try again using the recommended browser Google Chrome. If you are still unable to log in, try using another device, the IOS system may fail to log in.

Q: Can I apply for several scholarships?

A: You can apply for several scholarships, but you can only accept one. If you concurrently accept scholarships from other sources, you will lose the placement in the scholarship program, and you have to return the funds that you received from multiple scholarships.

Q: Where can I get the official transcript?

A: You can print it out by the machine on the first floor of the administration building. And it must be your transcript of academic record (the cumulated one), not semester record.

Q: Where can I find the academic performance evaluation form?

A: It is the recommendation letter, and the online application system will automatically send the form to your professor after you submit your application.

Q: The submission of all the documents should be on the same date as the date when the advisor signed the recommendation letter?

A: The sign date of the recommendation letter can be within Feb 2nd – Mar 6th, 2026. All the documents will not need to be submitted on the same date, but they should be submitted before the deadline.

Q: I have not found an advisor yet, what should I do?

A: You can email your mentor or department president to help you complete the recommendation.
