

OIA Intl' TA FAQ

For Students

Can I apply for the TA program if I am a first-year student in the Master/Ph.D. program?

A: Yes, MA/Ph.D students can apply for the TA program once they match up with a suitable course.

Is there any guarantee that I will be selected after applying?

A: If there are too many applicants, students will be ranked according to their qualifications; the priority will be given to those who haven't been granted any scholarship .

What is the total amount of this scholarship?

A: The monthly grant of being a TA is 5,000 NTD, which makes the total amount of this scholarship 20,000 NTD per semester.

What should I do if I didn't receive the payment?

A: Please contact the Division of International Education, OIA

What should I do if I can't submit my weekly working log due to unpredictable system failure?

A: Please send your report directly to Division of International Education, OIA instead.

If I am not compatible with my professor once the semester has started, can I choose to withdraw or change the professors/courses?

A: you may ask OIA to communicate with the professors, or you may choose to withdraw, but you CANNOT change courses or professors after you are assigned to the particular professor.

What will happen if I don't submit my weekly working log on time?

A : It will reflect on your final score of TA performance. We will also take the instructor's opinions and feedbacks into consideration as a reference for the TA application next semester. OIA reserves the right to suspend your monthly grant immediately.

Can I apply for TA programs opened by other administration units?

A: Yes, but you cannot apply for another TA program with a course that has the same name. Namely, if you wish to apply for TA programs opened by other administrative units, you must choose different courses for other applications.

For instructor

Is teaching an English-taught course a requirement to apply for a TA?

What are the criteria?

A: Yes, only the courses that are taught in English will be assigned a TA; the requirement and related regulations are based on the language of instruction listed in the Registrar's Office online system.

Are there any restrictions on the type of course or the amounts of students?

A: No. The TA program is not limited to any type of course or the amounts of students.

What if my TA is not compatible with my professionalism or isn't capable of administrative work?

A: Should you have this sort of concern please contact OIA for assistance, we will schedule further arrangement to solve your problems .
