學校簡介
Introduction

Dong-A University is located in Busan, South Korea, the country's second most-populated city after the capital Seoul. It's one of only two universities within Greater Busan that has both a medical school and a law school.
Established shortly after the end of the Second World War, the university currently has approximately 19,000 undergraduates and 2,450 postgraduates enrolled. Undergraduate teaching spreads across 12 different faculties, from physical education to social sciences, as well as the aforementioned medical and law schools. There are also eight specialized graduate schools.
