學校簡介 Introduction	Research calls for curiosity. Dedication. And concentration. We would like to awaken your curiosity for the University of Konstanz in this short film. For our research. For studying and teaching. For our university at the lakeside. Here in Konstanz. Since its foundation in 1966, the University of Konstanz has distinguished itself through its top-level research, excellence in teaching and studies, internationality and interdisciplinary collaboration. This visionary founding principle is even embedded in its architecture: the short distances and interlinked buildings of our campus university sustain an environment that facilitates communication, interlinks scientific disciplines and advances a culture of creative collaboration.
