學校簡介
Introduction

The University's main mandate is to focus on research and development, teaching and continuing professional education and training. In all these fields its regional status is to be deepened and its high ranking in the European academic area is to be guaranteed. This is laid down in the Mission Statement of the University of Innsbruck. The University is committed to equality of opportunity for all staff and students, irrespective of gender, marital status, family status, age, disability, race, sexual orientation, and religious belief, and membership of the travelling community.

Founded in 1669, the University of Innsbruck looks back to a long and variable history. The University has always been a supporting pillar of the Tyrolean society and has influenced the region tremendously. The importance of its status as a research and educating institution can be seen in the numerous award winning alumni and current and former scientists teaching and researching at the University. Many scientific cutting-edge discoveries have been made at this institution.

Today the University comprises of 16 faculties and 83 departments. For more information on the structure and size of the University visit our sites University in Numbers, Student Numbers and Organisational Structure. You find relevant numbers on last year's performances at the Intellectual Capital site, and strategies and plans for the next few years at Development Plan. For finding the location of the various faculties, departments and other university institutions go to Maps and Directions. The site University Life gives you information on academic and cultural activities and events at the University.

註冊繳費 Tuition Fee	Exempted No tuition fee for exchange students; only small administrative charge (approx. EUR 20.70)	語言條件 Language Requirement	NCHU Outgoing language requirement(TOEIC:670 or equivalent) In general, we do not demand a language certificate – neither in German nor in English. However, please note that most of our courses are held in German and your students should thus be able to follow the lectures, discuss the contents, write papers and pass exams in German (level B2 – vantage or upper intermediate language user). The same goes for classes held in English. We also offer a free German language course for beginners each semester as an elective for all exchange students. If the students successfully complete this course, they will receive 5 ECTS.
